

Memory Loss, Creative Engagement, and Museum-based Programming

AMM/EdCom 2010 Summer Workshop

Location: The Art Institute of Chicago
Friday, June 11, 2010

- 8:30 – 9:00 am Registration/Refreshments
- 9:00 – 9:15 am Welcome/Opening Remarks/Introductions by Brian Bray and Helen Ramon, program officer, Helen Bader Foundation, Milwaukee.
- 9:15 – 10:00 am Diane D. Baugh, education and training services manager, Alzheimer's Association, Southeastern Wisconsin Chapter, on the symptoms of Alzheimer's and other memory loss
- 10:00 – 10:15 am Coffee Break
- 10:15 – 11:00 am Anne Basting, director of Age and Community, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, on the cultural cure for dementia
- 11:00 – 12:15 pm Laurel Humble, assistant educator, Museum of Modern Art, New York, on Meet Me at MoMA
- 12:15 – 1:00 pm Lunch
- 1:00 – 1:30 pm Introduction of the Wisconsin Museum coalition by Helen Ramon.
- Museum educators to briefly introduce their programs.
- 1:30 – 3:00 pm Breakout groups led by Wisconsin museum educators

Focus: Considerations needed for creating and offering programs for individuals with memory loss and their caregivers.

Breakout Topics:

Format/ Logistics: Dawn Kocaja, early childhood educator, Milwaukee Public Museum

Identifying Community Partners: Tricia Blasko, curator of education, Racine Art Museum, Racine and Courtney Spousta, curator of education, Museum of Wisconsin Art, West Bend

Institutional Buy-in: Amy K. Horst, head of Education & Community Arts Department, John Michael Kohler Arts Center, Sheboygan

Piloting the Program: Jayna Hintz, curator of education, Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum, Wausau

Knowing Your Audience: Erin Narloch, curator of education, Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum, Wausau

Program Evaluation: Anne D. Basting

3:00 – 4:00 pm Workshop wrap-up and share session