

Michigan - Indiana Museums Association

Meeting at South Bend, Indiana

In the

Northern Indiana
Historical Society Museum

November 14, 1930

OFFICERS

President	Carl E. Guthe
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.
Vice-President from Michigan	Gertrude Gillmore
Detroit, Michigan.
Vice-President from Indiana	Anna H. Stanfield
South Bend, Indiana.
Secretary-Treasurer	Edward M. Brigham, Jr.
Battle Creek, Michigan.

MORNING SESSION

10:00 O'CLOCK

(Central Standard Time)

Conference and round table discussion of Michigan and Indiana Museums, their educational activities, plans, problems, needs for expansion, etc. Here is YOUR chance to compare your work with what others are doing. Everyone participating.

"President's Statement" Dr. Carl E. Guthe

Subject: "Possible Means of Expansion of the Activities of the Museums Association."

Business Meeting.

Following the morning session the conference members will be free to look around the Museum and eat lunch informally wherever they may choose. Please return promptly for the afternoon session.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 O'CLOCK

Our Museum and Its Work Anna H. Stanfield
Northern Indiana Historical Society, South Bend, Indiana.

Notes on Indiana Archaeology Vern Patty
Indiana State Historical Museum, Indianapolis, Indiana.

LaSalle and Fort St. Joseph Otto M. Knoblock
Northern Indiana Historical Society, South Bend, Indiana.

Museum Developments in Indiana
. Christopher B. Coleman
Secretary, Indiana Historical Society, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Following the afternoon session members will go to the Rose Marie Tea Room for dinner at promptly 6:00 P. M. After the dinner Dr. Carl Guthe will serve as toastmaster, introducing a number of members for short impromptu talks (five minutes limit). Among those certain to be called on are:

Dr. H. T. Montgomery	South Bend, Indiana
George R. Fox	Three Oaks, Michigan
Charles H. Wheelock	Battle Creek, Michigan
Miss Gertrude Gillmore	Detroit, Michigan
Anna H. Stanfield	South Bend, Indiana
Edward M. Brigham, Sr.	Battle Creek, Michigan
Henry L. Ward	Grand Rapids, Michigan
Dr. Chas. Stoltz	South Bend, Indiana
Donald O. Boudeman	Kalamazoo, Michigan